Property Tax Deferment

The real property tax deferment and special assessment deferment programs allow qualified property owners to postpone payment of taxes or special assessments, subject to various timelines and possible fees and interest. The below links provide additional information about available programs.

Deferment of Property Taxes

This program allows for the deferment of collection of real property taxes for property owners that meet strict eligibility requirements.

Deferment of Special Assessment on Principal Residence

This program allows for the deferment of special assessments for qualified senior citizens or totally and permanently disabled homeowners.
